cranes directions promise twitch worry

I got a new toy car for my birthday. Before I played with it, I read the directions to find out how it worked.

I took the car outside to play with it. My dog, Rufus, came to see what I was doing. He sniffed at the car for a while. I watched his nose wiggle and twitch.

Then my brother wanted to play with the car. He made me a promise that he would be careful. "Don't worry," he said, "I'll take good care of it."

My brother decided to use his toy cranes to lift the car high into the air. It looked like fun. I decided to play, too! (Word count 112)

Nikki the cat watched a big building being built outside her window. The tall cranes scared her. The loud sounds from the trucks made her twitch.

One day Marie saw Nikki walking by looking afraid. "Don't worry," she told Nikki, "it takes a long time to build a building because the workers have to follow directions very carefully. I promise you the noise will end soon." Maria patted Nikki and Nikki felt much better.
